SSC CGL Tier I · Modern History · keyword revision notes · European arrival (cross-ref) → Carnatic Wars → Bengal → Mysore → Subsidiary Alliance → Punjab → Afghans/Burma/Nepal → Sindh (PYQ-only) · appendix at end

Last-minute 12

1. Order of European arrival: Portuguese (1498, Vasco da Gama) → Dutch (1602) → English (1608) → Danes (1616) → French (1668) — full company/factory detail cross-referenced, see box below
2. 3 Carnatic Wars (1744–1763), British vs French: 1st ended Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle · 2nd Treaty of Pondicherry · 3rd (Wandiwash 1760) ended ★ Treaty of Paris (1763) — French limited to trading-post enclaves, no troops/forts
3. ★ Battle of Plassey (23 June 1757) — Clive vs Sirajuddaulah, betrayed by Mir Jafar & bankers (Jagat Seth, Amichand, Manikchand) — British East India Company's first major decisive victory in India
4. ★ Battle of Buxar (22 Oct./1764) — Munro vs Mir Qasim + Shuja-ud-Daula (Awadh) + Shah Alam II (Mughal) → Treaty of Allahabad (1765): Diwani of Bengal-Bihar-Orissa to Company; Dual Government (ended by Warren Hastings, 1772)
5. Mysore: 4 Anglo-Mysore Wars (1767–1799) — 1st won by Mysore (Treaty of Madras 1769); 2nd no winner (Mangalore 1784); ★ 3rd (1790–92, Cornwallis) ended Treaty of Seringapatam — Tipu ceded half kingdom; 4th (1799) Tipu killed defending his capital ★ Seringapatam
6. Subsidiary Alliance (Wellesley, 1798) — adopted by Hyderabad(1798)→Mysore/Tanjore(1799)→★Awadh(1801, ceded half territory)→Peshwa(1802, per Parmar)/Maratha-confederacy(1801, per Lucent—DOUBT)
7. Punjab: ★ Ranjit Singh (Sukerchakia Misl) captured Lahore 1799 → made it his capital → assumed "Maharaja" title April 1801, Sikh Empire, Sutlej boundary (Treaty of Amritsar 1809); ★ Dal Khalsa (combined Sikh jathas/misls) est. 1748 under Nawab Kapur Singh
8. 1st Anglo-Sikh War (1845–46, 4 battles: Mudki/Ferozeshah/Aliwal/Sobraon) → Treaty of Lahore/Bhairowal (1846); 2nd (1848–49) → Dalhousie annexed Punjab (1849)
9. Afghan buffer-state policies: Ring Fence (Warren Hastings, defensive) → Forward Policy (Auckland) → Tripartite Treaty 1838 → ★ 1st Anglo-Afghan War (1839–42, disastrous Kabul retreat) → 2nd (1878–80, Treaty of Gandamak) → Durand Line 1893 → 3rd (1919, Treaty of Rawalpindi)
10. Burma: 1st Anglo-Burma War (1824–26, Treaty of Yandaboo); Nepal: Anglo-Nepal War (1814–16, Treaty of Sugauli)
11. ★ Sindh annexed 1843 under Lord Ellenborough (cross-ref Ch.9 Governors-General) — conquest credited to Charles Napier (Battle of Miani), who himself called it "a very advantageous, useful, and humane piece of rascality" — PYQ-book-only, see A.2

12. DOUBT: first English factory — Parmar: Masulipatnam 1611(temp.)/Surat 1613(permanent); PYQ book's own explanation: Hugli, 1651, under Shah Shuja's permission — not reconciled, see A.3

1 Arrival of Europeans (Portuguese/Dutch/English/French/Danish)

CROSS-REF The full company-by-company arrival narrative (Vasco da Gama 1498, Portuguese Viceroy/Governors, Dutch at Masulipatnam 1605, Danes at Tranquebar 1620, French at Surat 1668, Treaty of Tordesillas 1494, Battle of Swally 1612, Battle of Chinsurah/Hooghly 1759) is Lucent's own separate chapter and lives in the Medieval History build's Advent-of-Europeans file, not rebuilt here. Build-log note: that file's own banner previously read "Parmar has zero equivalent content" for this topic — that claim is now stale: Parmar's Modern History section opens with exactly this topic (its ch.1, covered in full below), so the ground is genuinely covered by both books across the two files, split by which book's chapter each half sits in. English East India Company founding (1600 Royal Charter from Elizabeth I), Hawkins at Jahangir's court (1608), Sir Thomas Roe (1615) are given in Parmar's own chapter and are covered in §2 below rather than the cross-referenced file.

2 English East India Company & Early Footholds

- 1599: East India Company formed · 1600: Royal Charter from Queen Elizabeth I · 1608: William Hawkins (sent by James I) arrives at Jahangir's court · 1611: first factory at Masulipatnam (temporary) · 1613: first factory at Surat (permanent) · 1615: Sir Thomas Roe (ship Hector) secures trading rights from Jahangir.
- DOUBT The PYQ book's own explanation for a directly-tested question instead names Hugli (1651) as the site of "the first English factory," under permission from Shah Shuja (son of Shah Jahan, Subedar of Bengal) — leading to Cassimbazar and Calcutta's later growth. This does not match either source book's Masulipatnam/Surat framing above and is not reconciled here — both are transcribed as given, see A.1/A.3.
- Battle of Swally/Suvali (1612), Surat — British defeated the Portuguese. Battle of Chinsurah/Bedara/Hooghly (1759) — British defeated the Dutch. Battle of Colachel (1741) — Marthanda Varma (Travancore) defeated the Dutch.

3 Carnatic Wars (1744-1763)

War	Key event	Result / treaty
1st (1744-48)	Extension of Austrian War of Succession; Battle of Adyar/St. Thome (1746)	Won by French EIC; Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle
2nd (1749-54)	Battle of Ambur (1749), Dupleix (French) backing Chanda Sahib	Treaty of Pondicherry
3rd (1756-63)	Battle of Wandiwash (1760), extension of the Seven Years' War; Eyre Coote (Br.) vs Comte de Lally (Fr.)	★Treaty of Paris (1763) — French confined to trading enclaves (Pondicherry etc.), no forts/troops

Dupleix led French forces in the first two wars. Result of the whole series: no further French territorial expansion allowed in India.

4 Bengal — Nawabs, Plassey & Buxar

Nawabs of Bengal: Murshid Quli Khan (1717-27, first Nawab; 1717 Golden Farman from Farrukhsiyar — free trade for Rs 3,000/yr + dastaks) → Shuja-ud-Din (1727-39) → Sarfaraz Khan (1739-40, murdered by Alivardi Khan) → Alivardi Khan (1740-56) → ★ Sirajuddaulah (1756-57, last self-governing Nawab).

Mir Jafar (1757-60, granted free trade + 24 Parganas zamindari) → forced to abdicate for son-in-law ★ Mir Qasim (1760-64, shifted capital Murshidabad→Munger, revolted over dastak misuse) → fled to Awadh, formed confederacy with Shuja-ud-Daula (Awadh) + Shah Alam II (Mughal Emperor).

Siraj seized Kasimbazar & Fort William (Black Hole Tragedy, 1756); Clive recaptured Calcutta & signed Treaty of Alinagar (Feb 1757) with him.

TRAP Battle of Plassey (23 June 1757): Clive vs Sirajuddaulah — betrayed by Mir Jafar (Mir Bakshi) + Manikchand + Amichand + Jagat Seth + Khadim Khan. Mir Jafar made puppet Nawab. Confirms formal beginning of British Empire in India — not the "first victory" in India generally (that's still Plassey per the PYQ's own framing, see A.1) but the decisive one over an Indian ruler.

DOUBT Who was Nawab when the Allahabad treaties were signed (1765)? Parmar lists "Mir Jafar made Nawab again" under the 1765 terms; Lucent says Mir Jafar was restored right after Buxar (1764–65) and died, with son Nazmuddaula signing the 20 Feb 1765 treaty and the Diwani/Nizamat grant coming from Nazmuddaula (not the Emperor). Not reconciled — transcribed as printed in both.

★ Battle of Buxar (fought 1764, Hector Munro vs. the Mir Qasim/Shuja-ud-Daula/Shah Alam II combine) → Treaty of Allahabad (1765), negotiated by Clive: Allahabad & Kara handed to Shah Alam II; Nawab of Awadh paid Rs 50 lakh war indemnity; Diwani (revenue rights) of Bengal, Bihar & Orissa to the Company for Rs 26 lakh/yr, plus Rs 53 lakh from the Emperor for Nizamat (military/judicial) functions — this Diwani+Nizamat control is the Dual Government of Bengal (1765–72), ended by Warren Hastings in 1772.

5 Mysore — Anglo-Mysore Wars

War	Key facts	Result
1st (1767/66–69)	EIC + Marathas + Nizam vs Hyder Ali	Won by Mysore; Treaty of Madras (1769)
2nd (1780–84)	Cause: Madras-Treaty violation (Parmar) / Hastings attacked French Mahe (Lucent); Hyder Ali defeated at Porto Novo (1781) by Eyre Coote; Hyder dies mid-war; ★Tipu Sultan succeeds (1782)	No winner; Treaty of Mangalore (1784)
3rd (1790–92)	★Triple alliance (Marathas+Nizam+EIC) vs Tipu, led by Lord Cornwallis	Treaty of Seringapatam (1792) — Tipu ceded half his kingdom, ₹3 crore indemnity, 2 sons as hostages
4th (1798–99)	Tipu's Jacobin Club/"Citizen Tipu"/Tree of Liberty, Napoleon contact; Wellesley attacked	★Tipu killed defending capital Seringapatam ; Mysore restored to Wodeyars under British suzerainty

HOOK Tipu was the only Indian ruler to grasp that economic strength underpins military strength — sent embassies to France, Turkey, Iran & Pegu.

5.1 Subsidiary Alliance (Wellesley, 1798)

Indian rulers paid for a British garrison stationed on their territory and ceded control of external relations. Adopted by: Hyderabad (first, 1798) → Mysore (1799) → Tanjore (1799) → ★Awadh (1801, ceded half territory incl. Rohilkhand & the Doab) → Peshwa (1802, per Parmar).

DOUBT Lucent's own annexation table instead dates Maratha-confederacy and Nawab of Carnatic/Arcot both to 1801 under Subsidiary Alliance, and does not list Carnatic in Parmar's adopter list at all; Parmar gives Peshwa 1802. Not reconciled.

6 Punjab — Sikh Empire & Anglo-Sikh Wars

- ★ Dal Khalsa — combined army of 18th-c. Sikh jathas/misls, established 1748 under Nawab Kapur Singh.
- ★ Maharaja Ranjit Singh (Sukerchakia Misl, one of 12 misls) captured Lahore 1799 and made it his capital; formally assumed the title "Maharaja" April 1801, founding the Sikh Empire; Treaty of Amritsar (1809) fixed the Sutlej as the boundary with British territory. Died 1839; successors Kharak Singh→Naunihal Singh→Sher Singh→Duleep Singh amid instability.

- 1st Anglo-Sikh War (1845-46): Sikhs defeated at Mudki, Ferozeshah, Aliwal (Sir Harry Smith) & Sobraon → Treaty of Lahore + Treaty of Bhairawal (1846); Treaty of Amritsar (1846) ceded Kashmir to Gulab Singh for ₹75 lakh; Sir Henry Lawrence, first Resident.
- 2nd Anglo-Sikh War (1848-49): Mulraj (Governor of Multan) killed 2 British officers → rebellion; Duleep Singh captured, Kohinoor taken; Dalhousie annexed Punjab (1849); Sir John Lawrence, first Chief Commissioner of Punjab.

7 Afghans, Burma & Nepal — Buffer-State Policies

- Ring Fence Policy — Warren Hastings: defensive ring of allied states around Company territory.
- Forward Policy — Lord Auckland: pre-emptively intervene in Afghanistan against Russian advance → Tripartite Treaty (1838) (Britain + Shuja Shah Durrani + Ranjit Singh) to depose Dost Mohammad Khan.
- ★ 1st Anglo-Afghan War (1839-42): initial success installing Shah Shuja, then catastrophic retreat from Kabul (1842); John Lawrence later adopted "Masterly Inactivity."
- 2nd Anglo-Afghan War (1878-80): Treaty of Gandamak (Yakub Khan); Lytton's "Proud Reserve Policy"; Durand Line drawn 1893 (Sir Mortimer Durand & Amir Abdur Rahman Khan) — today's Afghanistan-Pakistan border.
- 3rd Anglo-Afghan War (1919): Chelmsford's viceroyalty, Amanullah Khan; Treaty of Rawalpindi.
- 1st Anglo-Burma War (1824-26): Treaty of Yandaboo. 2nd (1852-53): no further Parmar detail; cross-ref Ch.9 (Dalhousie annexed Lower Burma/Pegu). 3rd (1885): cross-ref Ch.9 (Dufferin).
- Anglo-Nepal War (1814-16): Treaty of Sugauli (1816) fixed the British India-Nepal border, Nepal ceded territory.
- Battle of Saragarhi (1897): 21 soldiers of the 36th Sikh Regiment vs thousands of tribesmen, North-West Frontier, part of the Tirah Campaign (1897-98).

8 Sindh (PYQ-book-only addition)

★ Sindh was annexed in 1843 under Governor-General Lord Ellenborough (cross-ref Ch.9, Governors-General & Viceroys — neither source book covers Sindh's annexation anywhere in the Modern History chapters used for this file). The PYQ book's own explanations add the operational detail: the conquest is credited to Sir Charles Napier, who defeated the Amirs of Sindh at the Battle of Miani. Napier himself admitted the annexation was morally/legally unjustified, describing it as "a very advantageous, useful, and humane piece of rascality" — a line directly tested via an Assertion-Reason question. None of this (Napier, Miani, the "rascality" quote) is present in either source book; sourced here to the PYQ book's explanation text alone, per standing practice for PYQ-only facts.

One question from this PYQ bucket (Sawai Jai Singh II's astronomical observatories at Amber/Jaipur, SSC CHSL TIER-I 26/11/2025 Shift-01) is Mughal/Medieval-era content with no connection to either book's Modern History chapters used here — not built into this batch; flagged for whoever builds a Miscellaneous/Medieval-adjacent bucket. Two more (Assam tea cultivation and British capital reinvestment/Industrial Revolution) test economic-impact content that belongs to Ch.3 (Revolt of 1857, Land Revenue & Pre-1857 Revolts) rather than this chapter — cross-referenced there, not repeated.

A.2 New facts sourced only from the PYQ book (not in Parmar or Lucent)

The entire Sindh/Charles Napier/Battle of Miani narrative (§8 above) is absent from both source books' Modern History raw extraction — sourced entirely to the PYQ book's own explanation text, following standing practice for PYQ-only facts (cf. Geography Batch 1's Birgunj-Raxaul precedent).

A.3 Cross-book & cross-source doubts carried forward

- First English factory: Parmar gives Masulipatnam (1611, temporary) then Surat (1613, permanent); the PYQ book's explanation instead names Hugli (1651). Neither source book mentions Hugli in this context. Not reconciled — both given.
- Mir Jafar's status at the 1765 Allahabad treaties (Parmar: Mir Jafar; Lucent: his son Nazmuddaula) — see §4 DOUBT box.
- Subsidiary Alliance adopter years/list (Peshwa 1802 vs Maratha-confederacy 1801; Carnatic/Arcot listed only by Lucent) — see §5.1 DOUBT box.
- Ring Fence Policy's date (Parmar prints 1765 under Warren Hastings, whose governorship is otherwise dated from 1772 in both books' own Governor-General lists) — transcribed as printed, not corrected; flagged as an internal Parmar inconsistency, not a cross-book one.
- 1st Anglo-Mysore War dates: Parmar 1767–69; Lucent 1766–69. Left as printed.

A.4 Completeness check

Everything in advent_of_europeans_british_expansion_raw_extraction.md Parts A & B is represented above except: the decorative meme-style image captions (Robert Clive/Mir Jafar/Siraj-ud-Daulah "GADDARI KARWE" caption; Hector Munro/Clive/Shah Alam II Allahabad-treaty caption) — content-free by design; and minor list-only items already folded into the running prose (Nawabs-of-Bengal box, kingdom/annexation table §5-6 of the raw file, fully reflected in §4 and §6 above). Per the raw file's own Part C1 correction (carried forward here, not re-litigated): Lucent's Portuguese/Dutch/English/French-arrival chapter and the Carnatic Wars' Lucent-side detail sit in the Medieval History build's Advent-of-Europeans file, not here — that file's "single-source, Parmar has zero equivalent" banner is stale as of this Modern History build, since Parmar's own ch.1 (covered in full above) is exactly the missing Parmar side of the same topic.
