Batch 2 of 14 · Source: `static_gk_combined_raw_extraction.md` #2 Music (Parmar SSC Fatman 2nd Ed. 2026 pp.429-439 + Lucent's GK 2026 §30) · PYQ bucket "01 Art and Culture" (music-classified questions, Q144-227, ~84 Qs, SSC CGL/CHSL/CPO/Stenographer/Phase-XIII, Jul-Dec 2025) · ★ = tested in a real past SSC paper (book source, exam+date+shift cited in A.1)

1 Hindustani vs Carnatic

	Hindustani ★	Carnatic ★
Region	North India ★	South India ★
Languages	Hindi, Braj, Avadhi, Rajasthani, Marathi	Sanskrit, Kannada, Telugu, Malayalam, Tamil
Influence	Arab, Persian, Afghan; scope for improvisation; Gharanas	Indigenous; less improvisation; one prescribed style
Emphasis	Ragas; instruments equally important as vocals ★	Tala; more emphasis on vocal ★
Ragas	6 major ragas	72 melakartas + janya ragas
Instruments	Tabla, Sarangi, Sitar, Santoor	Veena, Mridangam, Mandolin
Vocal forms	Khayal, Dhrupad, Tappa	Kriti, Varnam, Kirtan
Talas	12 main (Keherwa, Dadara, Rupak, Teentaal...)	7 Saptatalas (Dhruva, Mathya, Rupaka, Jhampa, Triputa, Ata, Eka)

HOOK Kathak's associated music style ★ = Hindustani (Tabla/Pakhawaj/Sarangi/Flute); Bharatanatyam/Kuchipudi ★ = Carnatic (Mridangam/Veena/Manjira); Odissi = Odissi-style music (Pakhawaj/Mardala); Manipuri = Manipuri Nat Sankirtan music (Pung/Manjira).

TRAP NOT a classical Indian music form ★: Bhangra, Kuchipudi (a dance, not a music form), Garba are distractors for "classical form of Indian music" — correct answer is Hindustani ★.

2 Swaras, Saptak & Notation

7 basic Swaras (Sargam) ★: Sa(Shadja)-Re(Rishabha)-Ga(Gandhara)-Ma(Madhyama)-Pa(Panchama)-Dha(Dhaivata)-Ni(Nishada). Achal (fixed) swaras ★ = Sa & Pa only (always Shuddha, fixed pitch); Chal (movable) = Re/Ga/Ma/Dha/Ni (can be Komal/flat or Teevra/sharp) ★.

Term	Meaning ★
Raga ★	Melodic framework — ascending (Aroh) + descending (Avroh) + Samvadi notes ★
Talam	Measures the time cycle (rhythm) of music
Alap	Beginning of a raga — slow expansion of notes without words
Bandish ★	A structured/fixed pre-composed musical composition in Hindustani music ★ (also called "cheez"); foundation for Khayal/Thumri/Dadra/Tarana
Swaravali ★	Sequence of the 7 notes, composed for structure/practice of a raga (NOT itself a raga type) ★
Gamaka	Graceful turn/curve/oscillation on a note; gliding between notes = Meend

HOOK Saptak notation ★: dot ABOVE note = Taar Saptak (high pitch) ★; dot BELOW = Mandra Saptak (low pitch); no dot = Madhya Saptak (middle pitch).

Jati (by note-count, Hindustani) ★	Notes
Audav	5 (pentatonic)
Shadav ★	6 (hexatonic) — a 6-note raga ★
Sampurna	7 (heptatonic)

Jati (by beat-count, Carnatic) ★	Beats
Tishra	3
Chaturashra	4

Khanda ★	5 — a laghu of 5 beats ★
Mishra	7
Sankeerna	9

HOOK Teentaal ★ = 16 beats (matras), 4 sections of 4; Taali (clap) on 1st/5th/13th beat, Khali (empty) on 9th beat ★ — the most popular tala for Khayal/Bandish singing. Composition "Guru Bin Kaise Gun Gaave" set to Teentaal (Raga Yaman) ★.

HOOK Raga Vivodha by Pandit Somnath defines a raga via two components ★: Devamaya Swarupa (ethos/spiritual form) and Nadamaya Swarupa / Swarilakshana (tonal structure — notes cluster, aroh-avroh, vadi-samvadi) ★.

3 Thaats & Ragas

The 10 Thaats were formalised by Pandit Vishnu Narayan Bhatkhande; each is a parent scale for classifying ragas.

Thaat	Time	Key ragas
Bilawal	Morning	Alhaiya Bilawal, Hamsadhwani, Bihag
Kalyan	Early night	Yaman, Bhupali, Kedar
Khamaj	Late night	Khamaj, Desh, Jaijaiwanti
Kafi ★	Late evening	Bageshri ★ , Bhimpalasi, Pilu
Bhairav ★	Early morning	Bhairav ★ — "King of Morning Ragas", devotional/majestic, associated with Shiva
Marwa ★	Twilight/dusk	Marwa ★ — anxious/restless/renunciation mood
Poorvi	Late evening/twilight	Shree, Basant
Asavari ★	Early morning	Jaunpuri (derived from Asavari) — late-morning, gentle devotional
Bhairavi	Morning	Malkauns, Bilaskhani Todi
Todi ★	Morning	Gurjari/Gurjari Todi ★ — soft morning raga, devotion+pathos, associated with Gujarat, uses Todi Thaat notes minus Pancham

HOOK Raga Bageshri ★ = second prahar of night, mood = separation/love (Shringar). Raga Hansadhwani ★ = first prahar of night, energetic/happy. Raga Bhairav ★ = morning/sunrise, peace/devotion — the classic "early morning, peaceful, meditative" answer. Raga Marwa ★ = evening/sunset, anxiety/restlessness/renunciation.

HOOK Raga Miyan ki Malhar ★ = credited to Tansen ★ (rainy-season raga, one of Akbar's Navratnas).

4 Carnatic Forms & the Trinity

Form	Description ★
Varnam ★	Sung at the BEGINNING of a concert, for practice ★ (NOT the end — a directly tested false statement)
Kriti ★	Most important/highly structured Carnatic form ★, bound by raga+tala; 3 parts — Pallavi, Anupallavi, Charanam ★
Tillana ★	Presented at the END of a concert/dance performance ★, fast tempo, rhythmic syllables (dhin, tana-dhina)
Alapana ★	Improvised raga elaboration, NO fixed lyrics or rhythm/tala ★ — establishes form/mood of raga
Svarajati ★	Pallavi+Anupallavi+Charanam structure, themes of devotion/love/valor; suitable for dance (e.g. Bharatanatyam) ★
Sonata	NOT a raga-based Indian form — it's Western classical, for instruments like piano ★

HOOK Trinity of Carnatic Music ★ = Tyagaraja, Muthuswami Dikshitar, Syama Sastri (18th–19th century ★) — elevated the Kriti form to its highest artistic level ★. "Female Trinity" = M.S. Subbulakshmi, D.K. Pattammal, M.L. Vasanthakumari. Purandara Dasa = "Pitamaha (Grandfather) of Carnatic Music" ★; through the Haridasa Movement in Karnataka, composed devotional songs called Devara Nama ★ in simple Kannada, praising Vishnu/Vitthala. Tyagaraja's "Pancharatna Kritis" ★ = 5 compositions in praise of Rama, based on Adi Tala and 5 ragas (Nata, Gaula, Arabhi, Varali, Sri).

HOOK 72-Melakarta (parent raga) system ★ propounded by South Indian musician Venkatamakhin in Chaturdandi Prakashika ★ — ragas evolved from ancient Jatis ★ (NOT the reverse).

5 Hindustani Vocal Forms & Dhrupad

Form	Character ★
Dhrupad ★	Oldest/most ancient Hindustani style ★, sombre atmosphere emphasizing rhythm ★, sung with Tanpura+Pakhawaj; first composed by Miyan Tansen (as printed); 4 parts — Sthayi, Antara, Sanchari, Abhoga

Thumri ★	Predominantly Shringar Rasa/romantic ★ — love song, textual beauty central
Tappa ★	Playful; rapid/jumpy notes inspired by camel-riders' songs ★; developed by Shori Mian, Punjab
Tarana ★	Performed at end of concert, mood of elation; Carnatic's Tillana is based on this ★

HOOK Darbhanga Gharana of Dhrupad ★ = Bihar ★ (Khandar Vani + Gauhar Vani styles). Dhrupad divided into 4 major Gharanas/Banis ★.

6 Gharanas

HOOK Modern Hindustani notation system + "Kramik Pustak Malika" ★ = Pandit Vishnu Narayan Bhatkhande ★ (developed the Bhatkhande script to preserve ragas/bandishes in writing); Pandit V.D. Paluskar developed a separate ("Paluskar") notation system — jointly credited for "systematised notation" ★.

Coverage: all music-classified questions in the bucket-01 subset (Q144–227) are represented above or in-body.

A.2 — PYQ-book-only facts (not verified against the raw extraction)

- The specific mood/prahar table for Bageshri/Hansadhwani/Bhairav/Marwa (§3) is drawn from the PYQ book's own explanations, not printed as a single table in the raw extraction (which discusses these ragas separately under A.6–A.7).
- "Sitar invented by Amir Khusrau in the 13th century (Veena+Tanpura)" is the PYQ book's claim; the raw extraction does not attribute Sitar's invention to anyone.
- Dedh Satara, Pava, Mahuri, Muri, Vamsi, Bengbung, Talhkhuang and Narsingha state-specific instrument facts largely corroborate the raw extraction's state-wise folk-music table (A.12) but with additional descriptive detail (e.g. exact diameter, named communities) sourced only from the PYQ book.
- The term "Swaravali" for the 7-note practice sequence is the PYQ book's own term — the raw extraction discusses the 7 Swaras (Sargam) but does not use this name.
- The raga name "Gurjari" (vs. the raw extraction's "Gurjari Todi") and its full description (Gujarat association, Todi Thaati minus Pancham) are sourced entirely to the PYQ book's explanation — the raw extraction's Thaati table does not carry a raga by this exact name in its Todi row.

A.3 — Doubts carried forward from the raw extraction

Dhrupad's attribution to Miyan Tansen and Khayal's to Amir Khusrau (raw extraction A.2) are the book's own claims — other sources credit different originators; not resolved. Kamaicha described inconsistently as "bowed flute" (p.434) vs "string instrument" (p.438) within Parmar itself. Bharat Ratna ordering among musicians (Subbulakshmi/Ravi Shankar/Bismillah Khan) is printed inconsistently across Parmar's own pages — not reconciled.
