1 Women's Position — Sati, Widow Remarriage, Child Marriage, Education

Reform	Detail
★ Abolition of Sati (1829)	Regulation/Act under Lord William Bentinck; campaign led by Raja Ram Mohan Roy
Widow Remarriage Act (1856)	Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar (title from his Sanskrit-College principalship); drafted under Dalhousie, enacted under Canning (1856); Vidyasagar also opposed child marriage. Associations: Vidhava Vivaha Uttejaka Mandal (Vishnu Shastri Pandit, 1853); Widow Remarriage Association (M.G. Ranade, 1861); Satyaprakash weekly (Gujarati, Karsondas Mulji)
★ Age of Consent Act (1891)	Raised consent age for girls 10→12; driven by B.M. Malabari; passed under Lord Lansdowne (1888–94)
Sarda Act (1929)	Child Marriage Restraint Act — min. age 14 (girls), 18 (boys)
Education	Macaulay's Minute (1835) — Downward Filtration Theory, English-medium for the rich, under Bentinck ("Father of English Education in India"); Wood's Despatch (1854) rejected Filtration Theory, "Magna Carta of Indian Education" — vernacular (primary) → Anglo-vernacular (secondary) → English (higher)

HOOK Women's organisations, one-line each: Bharat Stree Mahamandal (1910, Sarla Devi Chaudhurani) · Ladies Social Conference (1904, Ramabai Ranade) · Women's Indian Association (1917, Besant/Cousins/Jeena Dasa) · National Council of Women (1925, Lady Meherbai Tata) · All India Women's Conference (1927, Margaret Cousins) · Arya Mahila Samaj (1882, Pandita Ramabai Saraswati). 1st university for Indian women (SNDT) — Dhondo Keshav Karve, 1916.

2 Brahma Samaj & the Bengal Reform Family

- Raja Rammohan Roy: Atmiya Sabha, Calcutta, 1814 (Parmar) / 1815 (Lucent) — forerunner of Brahma Samaj → renamed Brahma Sabha → Brahmo Samaj (1828). Founded Hindu College Calcutta (1817, with David Hare); Vedanta College (1825). Against idol worship, polytheism, child marriage; translated the Vedas into Bengali. Journal: Sambad Kaumudi (Parmar) / Sabad Kaumudi, 1819 (Lucent); also Mirat-ul-Akhbar (Persian), Gift to Monotheists, Precepts of Jesus. Titled "Raja" by Akbar II.
- Debendranath Tagore: Tattvabodhini Sabha + Tattvabodhini Patrika (1839); invited Keshav Chandra Sen (1858); amalgamated with Brahma Samaj (1859, Lucent); compiled Brahma Dharma from the Upanishads (Lucent).
- 1866 split: Brahma Samaj of India (Keshav Chandra Sen) vs Adi Brahma Samaj (Debendranath Tagore). Keshav Chandra Sen also founded Veda Samaj/Brahmo Samaj of South India (Madras, 1864, with K. Sridharalu Naidu); pushed the Native Marriage Act 1872 via his Indian Reform Association (1870).
- 1878: Sadharan Brahma Samaj, Ananda Mohan Bose (further split from Adi Brahma Samaj).
- Young Bengal Movement (late 1820s–early 1830s) — Henry Vivian Derozio, teacher at Hindu College.

DOUBT Atmiya Sabha's founding year: Parmar 1814 vs Lucent 1815. Journal name: Parmar "Sambad Kaumudi" vs Lucent "Sabad Kaumudi." Not reconciled.

TRAP Dharma Sabha (Radhakanta Deb, revivalist, against Brahma Samaj) — Parmar 1830, Lucent 1829 — not to be confused with the reformist Brahma Samaj itself.

- DOUBT Paramhansa Mandali — Parmar dates it 1849 (its own printed asterisk: "SSC considers this year as 1840"), founders Dadoba Pandurang & Durgaram Mehtaji, Maharashtra; Lucent's table gives 1849, Bombay, Dadoba Pandurang only, and separately lists a different 1844 Surat body, Manav Dharma Sabha (Durgaram Mancharam) — possibly the same "Durgaram" figure under two entries; not reconciled.
- Prarthana Samaj (1867, Bombay) — Atmaram Pandurang; M.G. Ranade joined 1870, R.G. Bhandarkar also a member (Parmar).

3 Arya Samaj, Aligarh & Deoband

Arya Samaj (1875) — founder Swami Dayanand Saraswati (b. Mool/Mula Shankar); first unit Bombay, later Lahore; slogans "Go Back to Vedas," "India for Indians"; caste-less/class-less society but subscribed to Chaturvarna by work not birth; against idol worship; believed Karma/Reincarnation; considered Vedas infallible, criticised the Puranas; wrote Satyarth Prakash. DAV College, Lahore, 1886, founded by Mahatma Hansraj in Dayanand's memory (per Parmar). 1893: Arya Samaj Punjab split into "Mahatma" group (vegetarian) vs "Cultured Party."

DOUBT The PYQ book's own tested answer for "who set up a Dayanand Anglo-Vedic school in Lahore" is Lala Lajpat Rai (established 1 June 1886), not Mahatma Hansraj as Parmar's raw extraction names — a genuine, unreconciled conflict between the book source and the PYQ book's own explanation. Both given; not resolved. See A.1/A.2.

Aligarh Movement (1875) — Sir Syed Ahmad Khan; Mohammeden Anglo-Oriental College (1875) → Aligarh Muslim University (1920); Indian Patriotic Association (1888); magazine Tahdhib-ul-Akhlaq.

PYQ Lucent separately lists a distinct "Muhammadan Educational Conference, Aligarh, 1886, Syed Ahmad Khan" — not the same institution as the College, per the raw extraction's own note.

Deoband Movement (1866), Saharanpur, UP — Parmar: Muhammad Qasim Nanautavi & Rashid Ahmad Gangohi.

DOUBT Lucent instead names founder "Maulana Hussain Ahmed" — a direct cross-book conflict, not reconciled.

- Singh Sabha Movement (1873, Amritsar) — revive Sikh faith, reconvert lapsed Sikhs.
- Dev Samaj (1887, Lahore) — Shiv Narayan Agnihotri.
- Shuddhi Movement — Arya Samaj's reconversion-to-Hinduism campaign (from Islam/Christianity).

4 Caste-Struggle & Lower-Caste Movements

Movement/Org	Year	Place	Founder
★ Satyashodhak Samaj	1873	Maharashtra	Jyotiba Phule (wrote Gulamgiri , Sarvajanik Satyadharma ; started first girls' school, Pune, 1848, with wife Savitribai)
Bahishkrit Hitakarini Sabha	1924	Bombay	B.R. Ambedkar
Self-Respect Movement	1925	Tamil Nadu	E.V. Ramaswamy Naicker "Periyar" — "same movement" also credited to Narayan Guru (Kerala) & Jyotiba Phule (Maharashtra) per Parmar
Mahad Satyagraha	1927	—	B.R. Ambedkar (burnt Manusmriti)
Temple Entry Movement	1927 (national); 1924 (South India, T.K. Madhavan)	Kalaram Temple, Nashik (1930)	B.R. Ambedkar; Vaikom Satyagraha 1924 — K.P. Kesava Menon
All India Depressed Classes Assoc.	1926	Nagpur	M.C. Rajah

Also: Stri Purush Tulna — Tarabai Shinde. Amar Jiban (Rassundari Devi) — first known autobiography by an Indian woman. Civil Disobedience Movement in Kerala led by K. Kelappan (cross-ref Ch.7).

5 South India & Other Movements; Press Pioneers

- Satnami Movement (1820s, Chhattisgarh) — Guru Ghasidas, leatherworkers' social status.
 - Theosophical Society (1875) — New York, Blavatsky & Olcott; HQ → Adyar, Madras, 1882; later Annie Besant.
 - Indian National Social Conference (1887) — M.G. Ranade & Raghunath Rao; Pledge Movement against child marriage.
 - SNDP Movement — Shree Narayan Guru Swami, upliftment of Ezhavas (Kerala); slogan "Oru Jathi, Oru Matham, Oru Daivam."
 - Justice Movement (1917/1915-16) — C.N. Mudaliar, T.M. Nair, P. Tyagaraja.
 - Swaminarayan sect (Swami Sahajanand, b. Gyanashyama, 1781-1830) — Gujarat, theistic God + moral code.
- HOOK Press pioneers, one-line each:
Balshastri Jambhekar — Darpan & Digdarshan, "Father of Marathi Journalism."
Gopal Hari Deshmukh ("Lokhitwadi") — Prabhakar & Hitechhu. Gopal Ganesh Agarkar — Sudharak.

 - Servants of India Society (1905) — Gopal Krishna Gokhale, political guru of Gandhi & Jinnah.
 - Seva Sadan (1908) — B.M. Malabari, against child marriage/for widow remarriage.
 - Social Service League (1911, Bombay) — N.M. Joshi, also founded AITUC (1920).

DOUBT Wahabi Movement — Sayyid Ahmad Bareilvi (Rae Bareli), a.k.a. Tariqa-e-Muhammadiya, sought Dar-ul-Harb → Dar-ul-Islam. Faraizi Movement boxed alongside it: Parmar dates it 1818 (Haji Shariatullah); the raw extraction's own cross-book note records Lucent giving 1838 elsewhere (revolts table) — not reconciled.

6 PYQ-book-only content (not in either source book)

★ A directly-tested question asks how the Bombay and Madras Presidency governments reacted to the British Parliament's 1839 Draft Act to regulate/abolish slavery: Bombay denied the need for any new law; Madras questioned the Act's utility/expediency — both skeptical/protective, neither supportive. This entire episode (the 1839 anti-slavery draft act and the two Presidencies' responses) does not appear anywhere in the Modern History raw extraction; sourced to the PYQ book's own explanation text alone.

Q7 (Rani Gaidinliu/Heraka Movement) is tribal-movement content already covered in the raw extraction's Major-Rebellion and Quit-India files (Ch.3/Ch.8 territory) rather than this Socio-Religious chapter's own source pages — cited here since the PYQ book files it under this bucket, cross-referenced forward to whichever of those chapters is built to carry the full Heraka Movement narrative, not repeated in full here.

A.2 New fact sourced only from the PYQ book (not in Parmar or Lucent)

The 1839 anti-slavery Draft Act and the Bombay/Madras Presidencies' differing responses (§6 above) — sourced entirely to the PYQ book's own explanation text.

A.3 Cross-book & cross-source doubts carried forward

- DAV School/College, Lahore (1886) founder: raw extraction (Parmar) says Mahatma Hansraj; the PYQ book's own tested answer says Lala Lajpat Rai. Not reconciled — see §3.
- Deoband founders: Parmar (Nanautavi & Gangohi) vs Lucent ("Maulana Hussain Ahmed") — direct conflict, not reconciled.
- Atmiya Sabha year (1814 vs 1815) and journal name (Sambad vs Sabad Kaumudi) — not reconciled.
- Widow Remarriage Act: Parmar puts the whole Act under Dalhousie (1856); Lucent splits it — Bill (17 Nov 1855) under Dalhousie, Act (25 July 1856) under Canning.
- Faraizi Movement year: Parmar 1818 vs a Lucent revolts-table entry of 1838 (per the raw extraction's own cross-reference note) — not reconciled.
- Paramhansa Mandali / Manav Dharma Sabha: possible overlap between Parmar's "Durgaram Mehtaji" and Lucent's separate 1844-Surat "Durgaram Mancharam" entry — flagged, not merged.

A.4 Completeness check

Every fact in socio_religious_reforms_raw_extraction.md Parts A & B is represented above except: Lucent's full 24-row Socio-Religious Organisations table's minor entries with no further prose elaboration and no PYQ hit (Nirankaris, Namdharis, Radha Swami Satsang, Deccan Education Society, Nadwah-ul-Ulama, Poona Seva Sadan, Seva Samiti) — condensed to the §5 HOOK box / omitted where truly one-line-only, consistent with standing condensation practice for untested list items; and the reformer mini-biographies for Swami Sahajanand/Debendranath Tagore/Raja Rammohan Roy already fully folded into §2/§5's running prose. The Bengal-Gazette/Hickey newspaper fact and the education-committee tables (Hunter/Raleigh/Sadler/Sargeant) sit in the Governors-General file, not this one — cross-referenced to Ch.9, not repeated.
